

Anger of the Lamb press

SPOTLIGHT ON
THE NEW BREED: By Chris Uhl

(As it appears in the January 2nd, 2002 Edition of the Aquarian Weekly)

Sometimes you have to take things into your own hands if you want results. And that's exactly what Anger of the Lamb's Brian Snell has done. A salmon in a tidal swell of cove tuna, this Bogota-based artist has carefully nurtured the development of his own band while also creating a united alliance with like-minded artists through Introvert Productions. Snell's brainchild as well, this organization was responsible for "Unity through Music", a recent Bogota benefit that drew 170-plus and raised $2,200 for WTC victims - without the help of a prominent North Jersey venue or promoter. Encouraged by the outpouring support from that event and the fierce chops exhibited by the original bands involved, Introvert has once again assembled an evening of local brutes to roar in the New Year something massive. Dubbed "Revolution 2002", this showcase features the finest, well-tooled, heavy rock talent to echo from the halls of North Jersey since the bygone days of Studio One. Joining the progressively punchy Anger of the Lamb on this four-pronged monster of a bill will be the nightmarishly lurking Tober, the golden-throated, diesel-thrusted Child, and the stiff neck inducing Sixty Miles Down. Now, for a ringing endorsement: I've heard the pretenders and I've heard the contenders and I can vouch without hesitation that all the above rock with technical proficiency and presentation far beyond what their "local" status would imply. The coordinates for "Revolution 2002" on Saturday, Jan. 5 are as follows: Doors 7pm, VFW POST #5561 Leonia Ave. Entrance, Bogota, NJ. ALL AGES, 21 to drink with ID. Tickets are $10 in advance and $15 Day of. Tix can be purchased online with Visa or Mastercard through www.angerofthelamb.com (just click on the "revolution" banner on the front page.) Send money orders ($10x# of tix + $5 S&H) to Anger of the Lamb, PO Box 96, Bogota, NJ 07603. For local record stores selling tix and giving away free "revolution 2002" cd samplers, and directions, also check www.angerofthelamb.com

THE NEW BREED

by Chris Uhl

Sometimes you have to take things into your own hands if you want results. And that's exactly what Anger Of The Lamb's Brian Snell has done. A salmon in a tidal swell of cove tuna, this Bogota-based artist has carefully nurtured the development of his own band while also creating a united alliance with like-minded artists through Introvert Productions. Snell's brainchild as well, this organization was responsible for "Unity through Music", a recent Bogota benefit that drew 170-plus and raised $2,200 for WTC victims - without the help of a prominent North Jersey venue or promoter.

Encouraged by the outpouring of support from that event and the fierce chops exhibited by the original bands involved, Introvert has once again assembled an evening of local brutes to roar in the New Year something massive. Dubbed "Revolution 2002", this showcase features the finest, well-tooled, heavy rock talent to echo from the halls of North Jersey since the bygone days of Studio One.

Joining the progressively punchy Anger Of The Lamb on this four-pronged monster of a bill will be the nightmarishly lurking Tober, the golden-throated, diesel-thrusted Child, and the stiff neck inducing Sixty Miles Down.

Now, for a ringing endorsement: I've heard the pretenders and I've heard the contenders and I can vouch without hesitation that all the above rock with technical proficiency and presentation far beyond what their "local" status would imply.

The coordinates for "Revolution 2002" on Saturday, Jan. 5 are as follows: Doors 7pm, VFW POST #5561 Leonia Ave. Entrance, Bogota, NJ. ALL AGES, 21 to drink with ID. Tickets are $10 in advance and $15 Day of. Tix can be purchased online with Visa or Mastercard through www.angerofthelamb.com (just click on the "revolution" banner on the front page.) Send money orders ($10x# of tix + $5 S&H) to Anger Of The Lamb, PO Box 96, Bogota, NJ 07603. For local record stores selling tix and giving away free "Revolution 2002" CD samplers, and directions, also check www.angerofthelamb.com

Revolution 2002:
Jersey's New Breed

cover spot

81 Cover Sp